106TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

H. R. 4338

To restore the reservation lands of the Elk Valley Band of Indians of the Elk Valley Rancheria of California, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 13, 2000

Mr. Thompson of California introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Resources

A BILL

To restore the reservation lands of the Elk Valley Band of Indians of the Elk Valley Rancheria of California, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; FINDINGS.
- 4 (a) Short Title.—This Act may be cited as the
- 5 "Elk Valley Land Restoration Act".
- 6 (b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:
- 7 (1) In Hardwick v. United States of America,
- 8 United States District Court, Northern District of
- 9 California, Case No. C-79-1710-SW, the Court de-
- 10 clared that the plaintiff Elk Valley Rancheria "were

- never and are not now lawfully terminated under the California Rancheria Act of August 18, 1958 (72)
 Stat. 619), as amended by the Act of August 11, 1964 (78 Stat. 390), in that the requirements of section 3 of that Act were not fulfilled prior to the
 - (2) As a direct result of its unlawful termination and subsequent conveyance of Rancheria parcels to third parties, the United States no longer owns any lands in trust for the Elk Valley Band.

conveyance of the deeds to the Rancheria Parcels".

- (3) The Court held that "as a consequence, (it) has authority as a court of equity to remedy the effects of the premature and unlawful termination of the plaintiff Rancherias".
- (4) Pursuant to the Court's judgment, the Secretary of the Interior published a notice in the Federal Register (Vol. 63, No. 250, December 30, 1998) acknowledging that the United States maintains a government-to-government relationship with the Elk Valley Band of Indians of the Elk Valley Rancheria of California.
- (5) Recognizing the special trust relationship between the United States and the Elk Valley Band and acknowledging that the United States was responsible for the premature and unlawful termi-

- nation of the Elk Valley Band's reservation, the United States has an obligation to restore a reservation for the Band.
- 4 (6) The best means of accomplishing this goal 5 is to require the Secretary of the Interior to take 6 title to lands acquired by the Elk Valley Band in Del 7 Norte County, California, in the name of the United 8 States of America in trust for the Band subject to 10 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.
